pictum Price Provisions

Because the Service is offered in multiple time zones, for consistency, a “day” for purposes of these Terms begins at 12:00 a.m. in Japan time zone and ends at 11:59 p.m. in Japan time zone of that same calendar day.

Billing.

By providing a credit card or other payment method accepted by pictum (“Payment Method”) for your subscription, you are expressly agreeing that we are authorized to charge you a subscription fee and any applicable taxes in connection with your use of your subscription to the Payment Method. If there is a change in your credit card validity or expiration date, you may contact your Payment Method information. We do this by processing an authorization hold, which is a standard practice. We do not charge you in connection with this authorization hold. If your Payment Method expires and you do not edit your Payment Method information or cancel your contract, you authorize us to continue billing, and you will remain responsible for any uncollected amounts.

As used in these Terms, “billing” shall indicate either a charge or debit, as applicable, against your Payment Method. The subscription fee will be billed at the beginning of your subscription and on each yearly renewal date thereafter unless and until you cancel your subscription or the contract or service is otherwise suspended or discontinued pursuant to these Terms.

We automatically bill your Payment Method each year on the calendar day corresponding to the commencement of your subscription. If pictum changes the subscription fee or other charges for your subscription, we will give you advance notice of these changes by email. However, we will not be able to notify you of changes in any applicable taxes.

Ongoing Subscription and Cancellation.

Your subscription will continue in effect on a year-to-year basis unless and until you cancel your subscription or the contract or service is otherwise suspended or discontinued pursuant to these Terms. You must cancel your subscription before your yearly renewal date in order to avoid the next billing. We will bill the subscription fee plus any applicable taxes to the Payment Method you provide to us during registration. If you cancel your subscription, cancellation will be effective at the end of the current Period –this means that you will have continued access to your subscription for the remainder of that period, but you will not receive a refund.
